

CONCLUSIONS

NASE course 2025, Tunissia

The training carried out in La Cité de la Science a Tunis was very interesting and motivating for participants. Teachers enjoyed and appreciated astronomy and astrophysics. The majority of them want to continue learning more about these themes in the NASE website and in futures courses organized in La Cité. All the participants really appreciated the course finished and the general training program of NASE. Thank you very much for this training.