What you would value more?

- Cooperation
- The latest achievements of astrophysics
- I value the exchange of experience, which provides an opportunity to fill in the gaps in the educational process.
- So interesting and informative lectures from lecturers and good people
- The high-quality presentation and direct communication with scientists.
- Everyone
- Proffesionalizm
- Everything was great
- The course agenda was very well organized, combining the useful with the pleasant.
- Quality
- The level of organization, which was evident from the very first moment, the hospitable and polite attitude that all the hosted specialists received, the interesting and informative seminars that were conducted by knowledgeable specialists, and of course, I will mention the interesting visits to the historical and cultural sites of Armenia that were accompanied by an interesting presentation by a knowledgeable guide.
- Interesting and informative lectures , good and intelligent people
- The professionals presentation by astronomers.
- The dedication of the teachers
- The kindness
- Teaching methods, coordinators
- Knowledge and achievements
- Observations and practical work
- All and observations
- High scientific level, good organization, attention and attitude

Other Observations

- Work and observation results of space telescopes
- I would like to thank the organizers. I wish the program to be ongoing, providing an opportunity to develop and discover the amazing world of education.
- I want such meetings to happen more often.
- I would like to have telescopes in schools and receive training in how to work with them, which is very relevant and important. Practical experience is necessary to strengthen scientific knowledge. When students have the opportunity to make observations on their own, they will develop a scientific interest and a spirit of inquiry.
- I wish it was continuous for the same group.
- It is desirable to have practical work.
- Organize meetings like this more often
- Demand that sociology be taught as a compulsory subject in schools and train teachers for this purpose
- Seminars should be organized frequently
- Such intersting seminars will be organized frequently.
